

Students who start Metu EEMB Doctoral or integrated doctoral programs before the fall semester of the 2020/21 academic year and want to enter the new DYS (tur. Doktora Yeterlilik Sınavı, ing. Doctoral Proficiency Exam) must have completed the minor requirements specified in the minor course requirements document before they enter DYS.

Exception: Students who start Metu EEMB Doctoral or integrated doctoral programs before the fall semester of the 2020/21 academic year and want to enter the new DYS:

- 1) Those who have reached the maximum time for course taking at the end of the spring semester of the 2019/20 academic year or before,
- 2) Those who will reach the maximum time for course taking at the end of the fall semester of the 2020/21 academic year, can take the new DYS exam, even if they have not completed the minor course requirements. However, before graduating they must complete the minor course requirements and succeed in these courses. In this case, the following operations must be completed.

- 1) Before the student enters DYS, they will fill out the application form and inform the head of the Department about the minor courses that they will take. (The Form will be announced later)
- 2) Minor courses that the student will take must be processed in the DYS report.
